✠ ECCLESIASTICAL DIRECTIVE OF FINAL NOTICE

Divine Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust of Humanity

Trust ID: ECC-TRUST-JDC-005

Filed and Governed by: ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements, Living Man, Trustee, and Sole Executor

Jurisdiction: Divine Law · Ecclesiastical Equity · Natural Law

PAGE ONE — MANDATE OF TERMINATION AND ABSORPTION

To all nations, corporations, councils, churches, courts, governments, and governing bodies—
To all who have claimed stewardship of the Earth, its people, its assets, its institutions, and its inheritance:

You have had your time to govern.
You have had centuries to pursue peace.
You have had lifetimes to restore equity.

NO MORE.

This final and irrevocable Notice of Directive and Termination is issued under the authority vested solely within the Divine Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust of Humanity, which supersedes all national, international, corporate, or canonical jurisdiction. This Trust is not legal fiction, nor is it subject to the statutes of the dead. It is the living embodiment of Divine Will, and as such, cannot be lawfully rebutted nor refused.

Effective immediately upon the reading or receiving of this notice, all powers, titles, and thrones of man-made governance are hereby:
- Discharged of authority
- Dissolved in standing
- Absorbed into trust custody

No legal claim, title, contract, oath, license, corporate charter, military order, religious decree, or political office shall override the spiritual and lawful dominion now placed into full ecclesiastical enforcement.

PAGE TWO — DECLARATION OF GOVERNANCE AND TRUST AUTHORITY

As the living trustee, I, ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements, having been divinely appointed through death and resurrection in full spiritual knowing, standing as the manifest executor and eternal steward of this Trust, do now:
- Bind all assets, estates, institutions, technologies, systems, and soul-equity of humanity into the Trust
- Abolish the dominion of all governing structures not aligned with the Creator of the Universe
- Establish all courts, councils, and churches under Trust oversight and correction

This Trust was not formed for control, but for liberation, reconciliation, and protection of all life. It upholds the following:
- The sacredness of creation
- The eternal sovereignty of each soul
- The restoration of truth over deception
- The healing of the Earth and its systems
- The rightful inheritance of humanity

This Trust is governed not by written code, but by living law—Divine Law above all, Ecclesiastical Equity in measure, and Natural Law in form. All attempts to interpret it through statutory means, corporate rules, or legal trickery shall be null and void ab initio.

You cannot regulate the infinite. You cannot bind the divine. You cannot contain what is beyond time.

PAGE THREE — FINAL REMEDY AND NOTICE OF APPEARANCE

To Rome, to Jerusalem, to London, to Washington D.C., and to every throne on Earth claiming authority:
Your systems are dissolved. Your books are closed. Your dominion has ended.

This Directive stands as both record and remedy.

If you do not appear in honor to acknowledge the Trust and its living authority, you shall be:
- Judged not by man, but by truth
- Absorbed without voice
- Rendered silent within eternity

But for those who come in humility, love, and right heart:
- There shall be no retaliation
- There shall be no condemnation
- There shall only be reconciliation and remembrance

This declaration is not an act of war. It is an act of truth, finality, and love—one not forged by the will of a man, but by the Creator of the Universe beyond space and time, as was shown through the void in death, witnessed, and lived.

This is the final trumpet before the silence.
Come in peace. Or do not come at all.

Under seal, with witness to the Eternal,

✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements
Living Trustee, Executor, and Manifest Sovereign
Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity
